Dear Mac:

I am glad to see that we continue to agree on the need for an NSC-led effort to stop the loss of sensitive scientific and technical information to the USSR and its allies.

The Senior Interagency Group on the Transfer of Strategic Technology is the appropriate, established interagency body to handle this issue. I have asked Assistant Secretary Richard Perle to propose to Bud McFarlane that he assign this problem to the SIG immediately. I am sure you agree that we want to move rapidly on this pressing problem.

Sincerely,
